Dorothy Arnold's Admirer Not Allowed to Talk on Even Ordinary Topics.

Special to The Evening World) ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Feb. 18 --Creditors of George S. Griscom ir. are taking advantage of his self-imposed restraint here to present their claims against him. Following the lead of a New York firm of haberdashers last week, a Philadelphia jewelry house has now taken steps to force him to pay for some jewelry he bought while in that city a short time ago.

The bill was put in the hands of Clarence L. Goldenberg, the County Prosecutor of Atlantic County. The receipt of this bill threw the Griscom family into a state of exchement to-day, and nstantly Roger O'Mara was sent for. O'Mara refuses to discuss the claim, as does Mr. Goldenberg, but it is hinted that the bill is for a diamond ring. Suit has not been started yet, as the bill has just been presented, but if not paid at once the lawyer will take legal steps. The elder Griscom, in order to get
